INSTRUCTIONS

For individuals, there are three options in which a composite return may be filed. No other options or alternatives are allowed. A review of the options will show that option 1 is very simple but more tax is paid, option 2 lets you prorate the exemptions and deductions using the entity's income and option 3, the most complicated, is computed in the same manner as the regular individual return. These options may be applied on a member-by-member basis. Corporations and partner-ships should list their Georgia income and multiply it by the 6% Georgia income tax rate. Trusts and estates shall elect to use option 1 or option 2. For purposes of option 2, no standard deduction is allowed. Trusts and estates exemption amounts are as follows: 1997 and prior years, trusts $750, estates $1,500; 1998 to present, trusts $1,350, estates $2,700.

Information required in each case: Nonresident partner's or shareholder's name, identification number, Georgia income, marital status and tax due.

OPTION 1

Pay tax on the nonresident's income from Georgia operation. Computed from tax rate schedule.

				1 680 00

OPTION 2

Allows the nonresidents to deduct: (a) standard deduction and (b) personal exemption and credit for dependents. Both (a) and (b) to be apportioned on the ratio of the individual partner's or shareholder's Georgia income to the individual partner's or shareholder's share of the total partnership or S Corporation income. Amount to which the ratio is applied under (a) shall not exceed $2,300 single/head of household, $3,000 married filing joint or $1,500 married filing separate.
